

Sarah and Abraham

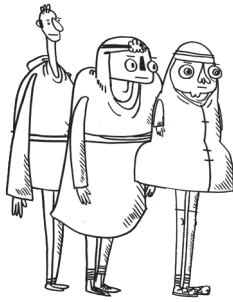

Genesis 18:1-15

Sarah and Abraham waited and waited for the baby God promised. Then they waited some more! Just when they started to doubt, God sent three visitors to announce (again!) that Sarah and Abraham would have a baby. God promised that Abraham's descendants would be as numerous as the stars. God's promise came true!

Take a Look

Here are some of the people and things in today's story. What can your child tell you about them?

Three men appeared unexpectedly—their true identity is a mystery! They may be referred to as “men” but are understood to be messengers speaking for the Lord.

Sarah laughed to herself when she overheard the news that she would give birth to a son.

Abraham welcomed and fed three men who came as messengers from the Lord.

About the Video

In the Holy Moly video, three strangers visited Abraham and Sarah. They brought good news that a baby was coming. Sarah responded with laughter. She couldn't believe the news.

- How did Sarah and Abraham react when the strangers arrived?
- What did the visitors show them to share their message from God? (Hint: If your family has a baby, you may have some of these things too!)
- Why do you think Sarah laughed?

Try This!

How do you welcome visitors? As a family, create a plan for welcoming people in your home. Who can answer the door, take coats, or offer a snack? Invite some friends over to put your plan in action!

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for keeping your promises and giving us so many things to laugh about. Amen!
